FROM THE OFFICE OF THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Fall is finally here and so much is happening at Harrison House these days. We are sad that our Dining Director Pete Matos has left us, but we are so excited that Mark Albright has decided to join our dining team. Mark was in the Navy for 23 years where he worked as a Chef. He has even cooked for President Bush. Mark is married with 5 children and 5 grandchildren.
 In Mark's spare time you will find him at a country club playing golf or riding his motorcycle. Small fact about Mark is he loves candy.
 Welcome Mark!!!

Harrison House celebrates its 50th Anniversary!

On October 19th, we will celebrate our 50th anniversary with an art show by Dylan Prichard, a local artist. Colorful artwork is displayed, throughout the building, showing historic images and area landmarks. We are so proud to be able to display this unique artwork along with our newly

On Guard

October 2 is Guardian Angels Day, a day to appreciate the protection of these mysterious guardians. A guardian angel is a tutelary being, a god or spirit that protects a person, place, or culture. Guardian angels figure prominently in both the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament. They act as God's emissaries sent to the world to carry out His wishes and watch over individuals. But most every culture has its version of a guardian angel.

The ancient Greeks called these benevolent spirits daimons, from which we get the word demon, while the Romans believed that individuals, places, and objects were guided by genius. Buddhists have their Dharmapalas, or Dharma protectors, while Indigenous tribes enjoy the help of guardian spirits or dream walkers. All these spirits have something in common. They pass us the strength and knowledge to avoid harm in all its forms. In this manner, they provide us with good common sense.
