Resident Birthdays

Bob Lasak - Dec. 9th
Dick Beck - Dec. 9th
Joyce Kucera - Dec. 26th

The Holly and Narcissus are best known as the flower(s) for December, both used for decoration. Some believe that Holly symbolizes hope, wealth, fertility, happiness, and peace. Because of its spiky leaves, holly was also viewed as a symbol of combativeness, pain, and trickery. It was thought that planting holly next to your house would ward off evil spirits and protect against lightning strikes.

Narcissus (paperwhite) is a bulb best grown indoors that blooms beautiful white flowers—just in time for the holidays. It stands for purity and unconditional love. The paperwhite is said to represent purity, faithfulness, and respect. In Victorian times, the gift of a narcissus meant you were “the only one.” A bouquet of paperwhites is a way to express pure or unconditional love.

Employee Birthdays

Beverly Markel - Dec. 5th
Sasha Jemison - Dec. 8th
Rayne Hughes - Dec. 19th
Ronesha Harris - Dec. 21st
Jasper Gbalay - Dec. 25th
Kevin Dietrick - Dec. 26th
Deborah Gates - Dec. 28th

The modern birthstone for December, blue topaz promotes crystal clear communication and makes way for manifesting one's dreams. Turquoise, a staple in Persian and Native American cultures, represents the energies of Mother Earth and Father Sky.
