CARNATION: The traditional January birth flowers are the carnation and the snow drop. Colors are: Bright red (admiration), Dark Red (deep love), White (innocence), Pink (affection), Purple (Capriciousness), Yellow (disappointment, rejection), Striped (regret). SNOWDROPS are used to express both sympathy and celebration. During happy times, they are thought to provide optimism and hope, but following a death or misfortune, they symbolize compassion. Innocence is also linked to the snowdrop because of its color.

BLACK ONYX: The two birthstones for January are garnet (the traditional one) and rose quartz (the modern or alternative one). Garnet is a well-known gemstone often associated with the color red, while rose quartz is a pink stone symbolizing love and peace.
GARNET: This is the traditional and most recognized birthstone for January. It comes in a wide variety of colors, although it is most famously known for its deep red hue. Garnet symbolizes protection, love, and strength.
